CATARRH

NEVER-FAILING RELIEF

AFFORDED BY

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

IT is a fact that can be substantiated by the most respectable testimonials ever offered in favor of any proprietary medicine, that the RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH does in every case afford instant and permanent relief No matter of how long standing, or how severe the disease, the first dose gives such evidence of its value in the treatment of Catarrhal affections that confidence is at once felt in its ability to do all that is claimed for it. The testimony of physicians, druggists, and patients is unanimous on this point, and the accumulating evidence is in point of respectability superior to any ever before obtained in favor of a popular remedy The proprietors, therefore, may justly feel proud of the position this remedy has attained, and believe it worthy of its reputation.

10 YEARS A SUFFERER.

From Hon. Theo. P. Bogert, Bristol, R.I.

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER Gentlemen,—Feeling thoroughly convinced of the efficacy of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH, I am induced to drop you a line to say that although I have been sceptical of all the nostrums advertised as "radical cures," I have never found anything that promises such relief and ultimate cure as that of SANFORD'S. I have been afflicted with this dreadful disease for more than ten years and not until recently could I be induced to persevere with any until I read the letter of Mr HENRY WELLS, and can truthfully say that after using five or six bottles I am thoroughly convinced of its curative properties Hoping that others similarly afflicted like myself will be induced to make the trial, I am, gentlemen very truly etc THEO P BOGERT.

Famine in Turkey

Constantinople Correspondence of the London Examiner.

While the Sultan shuts himself up in Yildir Kiosk, surrounded by place-hunting Pashas, who take care that nothing unpleasant shall reach the royal ears, the country is progressing from bad to worse. Misery, destitution and famine have it all their own way in the Provinces. From Europe and Asia comes the cry of distress, letters from Erzeroum give a fearful picture of the condition of several surrounding districts. At Bayazid people have gone mad from hunger, and many have been poisoned by eating roots and mosses; grain is forbidden to cross the border from Persia and Russia, and the local Governor is grinding three years' taxes from the starving peasantry, his excuse being that the money is required for Constantinople. The Vali, or Governor-General, looks on with folded hands, and estimates that there is enough grain in the Province to feed all the inhabitants; possibly the quantity exists, but it is locked up in the granaries of the tithe-collectors or speculators, and might as well be in the hearts of Africa as far as the people are concerned. But the Governer has ordered a list to be made out of the poorest; judging from experience in such matters, the officers employed will take a month to draw up this list, and in that time the destitute will be dead, and the Commissioners—for the Turks can do nothing without a commission—sent to verify the list will report they have not been able to find the people said to be in distress. The Turk give alms freely to professional beggars, to sturdy cripples, and stout imposters, but to organize systematic relief they are incapable. A famine is kismet, and is wrong to fly in the face of Providence. The doctrine is consolatory for those who can believe in it, but it smacks a little of selfishness. On foreign aid alone must the wretched rely, and turn their imploring eyes to the alleviators of their distress in 1875—the British and Americans.

A Land Flowing with Oil.

Stowell's Reporter gives some statistics of the petroleum business and production last year The amount of crude petroleum produced was nearly 20,000,000 barrels being 5,000,000 barrels in excess of any previous year. The shipment from the oil fields were nearly 16,000,000 barrels, leaving as stock on hand at the close of the year nearly 8,500,000 barrels, as against 4,000,000 at the close of 1878. Three thousand and thirty-eight new wells were drilled in 1879.

GEN LONGSTREET thinks that Grant can carry Georgia. Misguided man!

BENJAMIN BRANDRETH, the famous [illegible], died at Sing-Sing, N. Y., on Thursday, aged 71.

THE Cincinnati Commercial calls attention to the almost forgotten fact that Bristow was a candidate before the national convention held in that city in 1876. It is a suggestive fact that every great man who has set himself up as superior to the aggregate of the Republican party in knowledge and goodness has found himself speedily stranded, while the party marched on to fresh conquests.

THE Pall Vall Gazette says the German officers are the most highly educated in the world. They only get promoted by hard work. A German officer can only fight a duel with a man who is his equal socially, and is expected to fight whenever he is insulted. Several years ago a Prussian officer was slapped in the face by a baker in Coblentz. He drew his sword and cut him down at once. He was court martialed and sentenced to several months imprisonment, not for killing the baker, but for having a street quarrel. The army is evidently respected in Coblentz.

"JUDGE" WALLACE, the lively editor of the Hoopeston Chronicle, is just now receiving the compliments of his brethren of the press, on account of "that baby"—his first born. The Danville News having said that paternity seemed to improve the judge's appearance, and having suggested "what will he be when the tenth offspring salutes him," the judge replies

What will he be when the tenth says "How are you, papa?" eh? He will be sitting on the woodpile, singing

Porter's Case.

DON PIATT, who was a soldier in the army of the Potomac, has this to say in the case of FITZ JOHN PORTER,

"The case as it stands can be summed up in a few words. It is this. The court appealed to—congress—is made up of men who were benefitted by Porter's treason in 1862, and the man who betrayed us on the field for the good of the confederacy now calls on the confederate congress for restitution of honors and back pay. Should this appeal be successful, we may say, without fear of successful contradiction, that the south feels that it has won through the democratic party all that it failed to accomplish under the confederacy

WHEELING, W. V., Feb. 20—About a month ago the residence of William Worrell, near Claysville, Pa, was burned to the ground. The fact that it was an incendiary fire was evident at the time, but other particulars of a startling character have developed recently, which makes it an exceedingly revolting occurrence. James Worrel, son of Worrell, was engaged to be married to a young lady in Washington County, but not having the means to support a wife, he undertook to destroy his father and sister in the flames, so that he could come into possession of the property, and thus be enabled to carry out his wishes. Before setting fire to the house he locked his sister in one room and tied his father in another room. Fortunately a servant discovered them before the flames reached them, and with difficulty saved their lives. Young Worrell is twenty one years of age, and highly educated. The family are respected in the community in which they live.

NEW YORK, Feb 20—The large five story iron front building at 384 [illegible] 386 Broadway, burned this evening. The losses are estimated as follows: Hazen, Toods & Co, importers [illegible], $400,000, Dickershoff, Ruffiaer & Co., tailors' trimmings, $250,000; James Wilde, jr, & Co, manufacturing tailors, $350,000. Loss on building, $60,000, insurance unknown. During the progress of the fire two companies on the roof made an effort to cut holes through the thick plates of tin, but feeling the roof giving away, they were obliged to retreat. Two members, Thomas E. Dougherty and John F. Cassidy, were the last to desist from their work, and remained too late to escape. The roof gave way suddenly near the center, where they were standing, and with blanched faces and cries of horror the two doomed firemen fell into the blazing abyss, to be consumed.

Judge Poland's Prize Cow.

Washington Cor Louisville Courier-Journal,

A good story is told about Judge Poland, who for many years was a representative in Congress from Vermont. The Judge is not a strict temperance man, and can not make as good speeches upon water or milk as he does when offered something stronger. He was invited to make a speech in Maine, where the temperance laws are stringent. The chief committeeman knew that the Judge required a little inspiration, so he placed two mugs, supposed to be filled with milk, on the table behind which the Judge stood to harangue the crowd. Slyly the committeeman intimated to the Judge which mug he should drink from. The hint was understood, and the Judge had not gotten far on in his discourse before he became thirsty, he raised the goblet, quaffed it to the bottom, and set it down with the unctuous exclamation

"Ye gods, what a cow!"

What He Told Him.

New York Tribune

An Ohio pilgrim to Cipher Alley has returned to his home full of valuable information. He says he saw Mr. Tilden and learned from his own whisper that he is a candidate in every sense of the word. "He told me," says the pilgrim, "that he was a candidate for renomination." Respectfully and tenderly referred to the unhappy participators in the coming boiled crow debauch

"Better a Dinner of Herbs"

Dayton Journal

We b'lieve we'd rather be Tilden, and feel as if we'd been "counted out," than to be the Czar of Russia. To be shot at and missed one day, apprehending poison the next, and to be dynamited into infinite and ethereal space while dining, isn't good for regular diet

No Culture

N Y Commercial Advertiser

In England young men speak of their fathers as "the governor," "pater," "the overseer," etc. Here we are more civilized. We say, "dad," "the boss," or "the old man." In heathen countries they say "father," but they are always behind the age

A FEW days ago a section boss, while working on the Hannibal and Naples branch of the Wabash, saw a train coming, and at the same time noticed that a shovel was left some distance away on the track. He started for the shovel; just as he was stooping to pick it up the train struck him, the nose of the pilot entering between his legs, lifted him straight up, landing him on the pilot in front of the boiler. The train was stopped as soon as possible. The engine driver went to the front to find the mangled remains of the section boss. Imagine his surprise to see that worthy man get down from the pilot, and, with the remark that there was no harm done except a little skin off the leg, deliberately walk back to his gang and resume work. The shovel was badly demolished

NEW YORK, Feb 20—The case of the United States against Samuel J Tilden reappeared, to day, in the United States circuit court, by the assistant district attorney moving for an attachment to compel the defendant to answer the bill of discovery under the order of November 1, 1879, which overruled the demurrer and directed him to answer within sixty days. The time to answer expired January 6, and down to the present time it has not been answered. Instead, however, on November 10, 1879, defendant appealed to the supreme court from the orders overruling his demurrer. Motion, to day, was made to determine the status of the case in the circuit court, the doubtful question being whether the appeal, per se, operated as a stay of proceedings in this court. Judge Blatchford said he had ransacked the English and American books and had not been able to find any authority directly to the point. He thought the case before would be simplified by the action of the supreme court on the motion to dismiss the appeal, and accordingly ordered that the motion for attachment stand over until the motion to dismiss the appeal in the supreme court had been decided. The court also suggested an effort be made to obtain the supreme court's opinion as to whether the appeal operates, per se, to stay proceedings in the circuit court

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb, 20.—Simultaneously with the explosion in the winter palace, bombs were thrown into the adjoining streets. A person was arrested who was seen leaving the palace just after the explosion. The cellar under the winter palace was occupied by four joiners, three of whom have been arrested. It is estimated that the weight of the dynamite used was about four pounds. The winter palace and other palaces are being carefully search by a company of specially charged sappers. The total number of persons killed by the explosion is ten. The funeral of the victims takes place to day

NEW YORK, Feb. 20—Rev. Edward Cowley, late manager of the Shepherd's Fold, who was convicted of cruelly treating and starving the children under his care, was arraigned this morning for sentence. Recorder Smyth gave him the extreme penalty of the law—one year in the state prison and $250 fine, to stand committed to jail, at the expiration of his sentence, until the fine is paid, one day for each dollar. The prisoner was then taken to the Tombs

In the fall of 1874 the city built a reservoir on the north bank of the Sangamon river near the water works, by sinking a timber crib (100 feet long, 10 feet wide and 6 feet high, arched over with brick) into a stratum of gravel to a depth of about four feet below the bed of the river. This reservoir furnished a limited supply of excellent filtered water. Last fall this reservoir was extended four hundred feet up the river at the same depth and width, and covered in the same manner, making in all a reservoir 500 feet long, 10 feet wide and 11 feet high, including the arch, with the bottom four feet below the bed of the river, and in a stratum of gravel and sand the entire length. This reservoir was finished and has been in use since the first of October last, and has thus far proved to be all the most sanguine could have desired, furnishing an abundant supply of good pure water, and the indications are that it will prove sufficient for many years.

Inlet Pipe.

It was deemed necessary, as a precautionary measure, to connect the reservoir directly with the river, so that if, in case of a long protracted fire or drought, or any other unforeseen emergency, the water should fail to filter into the reservoir fast enough to supply the demand, access to the river could still be had by such connection, consequently a 24-inch cast-iron conduit pipe, provided with a Ludlow Gate, was laid from about the center of the current of the river into the reservoir, resting on the river bed and falling one foot in 110 feet to the reservoir. One man can readily open and shut the gate at any time when an emergency requiring it arises. The cost of the pipe and valve, with the labor of putting it in, was $10 per foot, or $1,110 00. For details please see register's report

The Dam

In the fall of 1878 it was found necessary, in order to increase the supply of water when the river was at a low stage, to build a dam across the river. The dam was therefore commenced at that time and completed last October, raising the river 4½ feet at the reservoir and inlet pipe, giving a permanent head of over 8 feet to force the water into the reservoir. The expenditure on the dam this year was $832 35

POLITICAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

NEW YORK, Feb 20—The republican fight is rapidly brewing into a regular triangular contest with the friends of Grant, Blaine and Sherman. It is so hot betimes that if the quarrel is carried into the national convention, some here say it may be necessary to nominate Rutherford B. Hayes, and put his election beyond cavil or need of returning boards and electoral colleges. With the democrats Tilden is a strong favorite, but the opposition of Tammany Hall, under the lead of John Kelly, will prevent his taking a united delegation into the national convention. Should Tilden secure the nomination for president, in spite of the opposition of Tammany, it is more than likely the full force of that opposition would be felt in the canvass. It will be Tilden or no one from New York. He cannot surrender to Kelly, and Kelly will not yield

NEW YORK, Feb 20—A Havana letter says that the Government has discovered a conspiracy among the Creoles for uprising in Vuenta Abljs, and secured six of the ringleaders, who were employed on a railroad. Three thousand Remington rifles and a vast quantity of fixed ammunition, arms and munitions were smuggled in from the United States, and the insurrection was to begin on the first week of March

General Grant presented $500 to the servants of the palace where he was entertained. The following story is told of General Grant and the railroad smash-up in Cuba. "The engine was off the track on one side, the coaches diagonally across it and nearly everybody was on the ground, gazing round in the dim starlight, when General Grant appeared at the door of his coach and, after a preparatory puff at his cigar, asked if any damage had been done"

FERRISS---FERRISS

Decatur One-Price Shoe Store.

Goods Marked in Plain Figures.

ALL accounts agree that there has been an unusual demand for cheap made or shoddy boots or shoes. It is a very short-sighted policy to buy or sell such stuff. In using these goods you pay out twice as much money in a year for your boots and shoes and you never have a pair that fits, because manufacturers of the cheap grades give no attention to the fit of their work. We trust that people who buy shoddy work will turn over a new leaf in this matter and practice true economy, by making quality the first consideration of their purchases of boots and shoes. At the popular Boot and Shoe House of L. L. Ferriss you can get prime and serviceable Boots and Shoes for as little money as you can buy cheaper grades elsewhere. His goods are made from the choicest materials, over improved styles of Lasts graded in sizes and widths to fit the human foot properly—and no shoddy need apply there. Mr. Ferriss does a one-price cash business, and can afford to sell very low. You can find the largest assortment in the city of strictly good goods at Ferriss' New Shoe Store, 11 East Main street being just across the street from his old store and on the east of Millikin's Bank.

CHICAGO, Feb 20—The Inter Ocean's Omaha special says: On the 31st of January, C. G. Lawrence, and Frank Lawrence, his son, arrived here from Vermont, en route to Denver. Both left the train at Grand Island, where the father died on the fifth of February. The strange and unnatural conduct of the son before and at the burial aroused suspicion, and the stomach being analyzed, sufficient prussic acid was found to cause death. It is learned the son had insured his father's life before leaving Vermont for 5,000 in the Knickerbocker, and 6,000 in the Travellers. Frank has been arrested and held for murder

DURING the past few days we have been announcing Lawyer Z. T. Hundley for a temperance address at the tabernacle to-night, at the daily request of the tabernacle management. Now comes Captain Post, who states that Mr. Hundley's other duties and responsibilities will not permit him to fill the appointment, and that Gen. Jesse H. Moore will positively speak to-night. That the General will make a good talk we can assure all our readers. Let there be a full attendance of all friends of the cause, and all others not identified with the movement are also urged to be present and listen to the address.

THE second anniversary of the marriage of Frank Provost and Fannie Stetcher was very enjoyably celebrated last night at their pleasant home on West William street. There were perhaps twenty couples present who participated in social games, discussed the coming election and other topics of interest, and at a seasonable hour partook of an abundant supply of elegant refreshments provided for the occasion. It is a matter worthy of note that nearly every church in the city was represented at this social gathering, as well as the big church.

THE first regular monthly examination of teachers for 1880, was held in the grand jury room to-day. Our reporter visited the room this forenoon and found the county superintendent, John Trainer, issuing knotty questions for the fifty young teachers and applicants for certificates to crack. Later all were busily engaged in attempts to solve the problems, but the results will not be reported until the superintendent has had time to examine the papers.

IT is said there are private whisky dens in the city called "Black Hills," "Leadville," "Mount Ararat," and "Pike's Peake." The "Hidden-Hand" room has been closed up, and one of the alleged proprietors has skipped out, while the other has signed an agreement nevermore to disobey the liquor laws.

LUTLIN Dr. J. L. Connelly, of Harristown, purchased two fine Morgan fillies from J. J. and D. B. Batchelder. They will be shipped to western Kansas in a few days and put on a farm belonging to the doctor.

THERE was a fair attendance at the Good Templars' sociable last night and the affair was altogether a very pleasant one. Miss Maud Hosea rendered several vocal selections in a very charming manner

D. S SHELLABARGER & Co.'s new and powerful engine for their new merchant mill is nearly in position. It is a perfect beauty and will make things hum in a few weeks.

THE Decatur Grenadiers had a very pleasant drill last night, at their armory, last night, Captain C. M. Durfee in command.

PERSONS going to Indianapolis on the excursion next Thursday can return either on Friday or Saturday morning. See notice.

ATTEND church to-morrow, and in the language of the active parson, "don't fail to go to Sunday school."

NEXT week will be a hot one on both sides among all parties interested in the result of the coming city election

Citizens' Ticket,

The announcement of a full ticket for city officers, under the above title appears in to-day's paper, but the late hour at which it was handed in prevents us from referring more particularly to the candidates. We shall have something more to say about them on Monday.

John Trainer's Treat.

The girls of the A class at the First ward were able to present a new and original departure from the ordinary manner of celebrating Washington's birthday yesterday. The teacher had asked the members of the school to find and read a few selections pertaining to the "Father of his Country." When school opened the "big girls" to the number of eleven were observed to bring in huge baskets filled with something. Imagine the surprise of Principal Trainer when the hour for dinner arrived, those big girls immediately cleared the tables of books, papers, etc., and spreading a bountiful table which a king might admire, invited the principal and Miss A. McClelland to sit down at its head and represent Washington and Lady Martha. This they graciously did, and the "General" thinks he ate as much as two George's. The names of the thoughtful "big girls" are as follows: Misses A. McClelland, A. Litterer, A. Koehler, Ida Priest, Florence Brand, Nellie Bishop, Lou. Tanner, Laura Ebert, Emma Stare, Bessie Green, Lou. Russell

We understand that there were appropriate George Washington exercises at the third ward school on yesterday.

Musical and Dramatic Entertainment.

The musical and dramatic entertainment which will be rendered at the opera house on Friday evening, Feb 27th, will be the best ever presented by home talent. Read the press notices where it has been given:

The Temperance Dramatic Cantata, as rendered by the home talent of Cortland, Me., on the 14th and 15th insts., was one of the finest entertainments that we ever attended. The influence of this touching drama "Lost and Saved" will long be felt, and do much toward moulding the public mind to a higher plane of moral excellence and teaching them the importance of united persistent effort in behalf of lost and fallen humanity. — Cortland Standard.

The Cantata which was given in Bertschey's hall, last Saturday night, was one of the most successful entertainments ever presented in this city.—Appleton (Wis) Post.

Any one who could listen to her singing, as a broken-hearted wife, appealing to her husband, and not have the spirit of good resolves aroused in his heart must certainly be beyond the reach of kind words and sweet music.—Syracuse (N. Y.) Daily Herald.

Monday's Theatrical Treat.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of the 17th inst., contained the following notice of the entertainment that is to be presented at the opera house in this city next Monday night:

OLYMPIC—Mr. F. S. Chanfrau introduced Kit the Arkansas Traveler, last evening, and the old favorite received a most welcome greeting. The supporting company was good, and the entire performance thoroughly satisfactory. Chanfrau's impersonation of the character of Kit has stood now for many years as the best effort of its kind before the public. It is a powerful melo-dramatic part, and in Mr. Chanfrau's hands receives the fullest and strongest interpretation. Instead of losing interest during the long time the people have been acquainted with him, Kit seems to make and attract new friends, while retaining all the old ones, and in this respect he may be said to be more popular now than he ever was before.—Last night's large audience was more than delighted with the Arkansas hero, and applauded his sayings and doings in a most rapturous manner. The river scene, the "little difficulty" on board the Medora, the game of poker in the cabin, the steamboat explosion and the terribly realistic duel with bowie knives in the last act, when Kit triumphed over his persecutors and amply avenged the crime that had desolated his happy home, and that sought to rob him of his daughter, all aroused the utmost enthusiasm and made the theater ring with deafening applause. Chanfrau's support is excellent.

Secure reserved seats at once at Curtis & Ewing's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

WHEREAS, In view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and brother, John W. Haworth, and the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.

Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased in the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That the heartfelt sympathy of Decatur Lodge No. 65, I. O. O. F. be extended to his family in their affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Lodge, and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of our deceased brother, and to each of our daily papers.

Resolved, That the Lodge be draped with the usual badge of mourning for the space of 30 days.

Read the following testimonials recommending Jay Rial's representation of the above play, to be presented at the opera house next Thursday night:

"The production is the most attractive of the many the play has had these many years; and for that reason is likely to develop immense drawing capacity."—Chicago Times.

"There is a touch of genuine pathos about the character of little Eva which appeals to the common heart of humanity now as directly as it did 25 years ago. The piece is elegantly mounted throughout. The attendance is large and everybody goes away pleased."—Sat. Evening Herald.

H. WARNER & Co., Rochester, N. Y.—Gentlemen—A lady of over seventy years of age, in failing health for over a year, has been using Warner's Safe Bitters on my recommendation. She feels very grateful for the benefit she has derived therefrom, and says that until she used it her stomach could bear no vegetable food for over three years. I believe it to be a certain specific for dyspepsia.

THE pastor of the Unitarian church in Evansville recently stated in a card that "Daniel Webster lived and died a member of the Brattle street Unitarian church, of Boston." The statement provoked some discussion, and a citizen of Evansville wrote to Joseph Cook for information on the subject. The following is his reply:

"Daniel Webster was not a Unitarian. He was never a member of a Unitarian church. To the end of his life he was accustomed to be present at the communion seasons in the evangelical churches at Franklin, New Hampshire, and at Marshfield, Massachusetts. My authority for these statements is John Taylor, his managing partner and friend in New Hampshire. I have been told the same by the Marshfield pastor who preached Webster's funeral sermon and by Judge Nesmith, of Franklin, New Hampshire. With all these men I have conversed fully on the subject. You will find Harvey's 'Reminiscences of Webster' supporting the same statements. Webster attended Brattle street Unitarian church occasionally, but the preacher he most admired in Boston, in his last days, was the Rev. Dr. E. N. Kirk, who was most emphatically evangelical in his theology."

Catarrh of the Bladder Cured.

HENRIETTA, Monroe Co., N. Y., Jan. 5, 1880. H H WARNER & Co.—Gentlemen: I am a man of 67 years of age, have lived in Monroe county, N. Y., most of my life, and believe there is no man of my acquaintance who would doubt any statement I might make. I have been a terrible suffer of Catarrh of the Bladder for years. Hearing of a number of cures from the use of your remedy, and after taking a few bottles of your Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, I was not only relieved, but found myself cured.

How Pius IX Was Received in Paradise

According to Le Pelerin, an Ultramontane periodical enjoying a large circulation in orthodox French circles, and laying claim to derive its information upon religious subjects from altogether exclusive sources, Pius IX., upon entering paradise shortly after his demise, was there received with somewhat exceptional honors. We subjoin in literal translation the account of his reception printed in the Peleria and purporting to be the faithful reproduction of a communication "received from the highest authority". "When Pio Nino entered Paradise he at once obtained a crown from the hand of the Immaculate Virgin, as a reward for the crown which he had bestowed upon her during his sojourn upon earth. St. Joseph whom he had made patron and protector of the church, shook him heartily by the hand and thanked him. Then St Peter gave out the key in which the hymn of welcome was to be sung, and the celestial choir chanted it, while Francis de Sales and Alphonso Lignori, whom he had formerly proclaimed teachers of the church, alternately recited in laudatory terms the deeds and achievments of his pontificate. Fifty two saints and twenty-six of the blessed, all of whom owe their present position to Pius IX., greeted him with harmonious choruses."

"THE GREAT BOOM"

Eighteen hundred and seventy-nine will long be remembered as the time when all kinds of business and financial prosperity seemed to spring into new life Merchants are finding plenty of ready customers for their wares, mechanics meet with ready employment at fair wages, and the farmers are receiving advanced prices for their products, and it is acknowledged by all that in no part of our country are the evidences of prosperity and comfort so marked as along the entire line of the "Old Reliable" Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad And to attain these results the management of the Hannibal & St Joseph Railroad have given their careful thought and attention, and the rapid growth of business, and increasing wealth of the community along the whole line are evidences that their efforts are fully appreciated We are, as usual running in connection with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad through Day Coaches, Reclining Chairs (free), and Pullman Sleeping Cars from Chicago via Quincy to Missouri river points. Also through Day Coaches from Toledo and Indianapolis, with Pullman Sleeping Cars from Toledo via Danville, Springfield and Quincy, to Kansas City, Atchison and St. Joseph without change Families traveling with children will find it greatly to their advantage to take the "Old Reliable" H & St. Jo. R R, as no changes or transfers are made
